

FirstHand 2015 IMPACT REPORT

EDUCATOR ENGAGEMENT:

EDUCATOR PARTICIPANTS:
187

TOTAL EDUCATOR ENGAGEMENT HOURS:
1,205

YOUTH ENGAGEMENT:

YOUTH PARTICIPANTS:
581

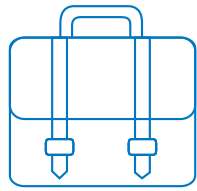

TOTAL YOUTH ENGAGEMENT HOURS:
3,315

MENTOR ENGAGEMENT:

PROFESSIONAL MENTORS:
31

COMPANIES ENGAGED IN MENTORING:
15

YOUTH PARTNERS:

- Belmont Charter School
- City School
- Southwark Elementary School
- College Settlement Camp
- Freire Charter School
- HealthWorks Academies
- Philadelphia Center for Arts and Technology
- KIPP West Philadelphia Charter
- Alain Locke Elementary School
- Math+Science Coalition
- Morton McMichael Elementary School
- Samuel Huey School
- Sunrise of Philadelphia
- SPARK Mentors

PROGRAM ENGAGEMENT:

TOTAL YOUTH PROGRAMS

TOTAL EDUCATOR PROGRAMS

MENTORED TIME/PROGRAM TIME RATIO

2015 WINNER OF US2020'S NATIONAL STEM MENTORING AWARD FOR MOST INNOVATIVE HANDS-ON PROJECT

75% Over 75% of participants said they enjoyed the program either "a lot" or "a tremendous amount"

9/10 Nearly 9 of 10 students said they learned "a lot" or "a tremendous amount" in the program

9/10 Nearly 9 out of 10 students rated instructors' level of knowledge as "high" or "very high."

“WHEN I PUT ON A FIRSTHAND LAB COAT, I FEEL IMPORTANT BECAUSE IT MAKES ME FEEL LIKE I'M ACTUALLY GOING TO DO SOMETHING THAT MIGHT HELP SOMEBODY ONE DAY.”

DEANDRA, 8TH GRADER AT KIPP WEST, One of 581 middle school students who wore a FirstHand lab coat this year.